HUNTING RULES

1 The owner guarantees that there are sufficient numbers of the game to be hunted this season on the farm, but the success of the hunt will depend solely on the skills of the hunter. The owner reserves the right to remove certain game available for hunting from the list if in the sole discretion of the owner the hunting quota for that specific species has been hunted (this may especially be applicable to hunters making bookings late in the hunting season).

2 No hunter will be allowed to hunt unless the owner is satisfied that the hunter is suitably qualified to hunt, having regard to ability to shoot and safe handling of firearms.

Initial: _____

3 A hunter may not consume alcohol before the hunt.

4 Hunting from vehicles is not allowed.

5 The decision to shoot and the responsibility for the shot rests with the hunter and not the guide, the latter only acting in a consultative capacity.

6 Extreme caution must be taken to prevent veld fires.

7 The safe handling of firearms is of the utmost importance at all times.

8 Hunters must ensure that firearms are correctly sighted.

9 Firearms smaller than 270 caliber are not recommended and ammunition must at all times be soft pointed.

10 Shotguns, air-guns and .22 are not allowed.

11 After two successive missed shots/animals wounded, the hunter will be required to return to the shooting range for sighting.

12 Only animals clearly visible and in a stationery position may be shot.

13 A hunter will not be allowed to continue hunting until such time as his wounded animal has been recovered or is deemed to be non-recoverable by the owner.

14 Wounded animals are to be paid in full. An animal will be deemed to be wounded when blood is shown to the hunter.

Initial: _____

15 No alcohol or tips may be given to the guides or other staff without the knowledge or consent of the owner.

16 Gratuities to guides are optional and may only be given to them on departure and with the knowledge and consent of the owner.

17 No dogs or other pets are allowed.

18 Hunters must ensure that the hunting takes place with the least damage to/disruption of vegetation/other wild animals.

19 Pythons are protected animals and may not be disturbed.

20 The rules and instructions of the owner/farm manager must be obeyed at all times.

21 A non-refundable deposit equal to the accommodation booked is payable and a booking will only be confirmed, once the deposit is paid.

22 Indemnity

Hunting and related activities are by nature dangerous and by booking a hunt at Motswiri Lodge each hunter and visitor will be required to sign an indemnity, indemnifying and holding Motswiri Lodge, its owner/directors and employees harmless against any claims of whatsoever nature resulting from or as a consequence of the hunt. A hunter or visitor refusing to sign such an indemnity will not be allowed to remain on Motswiri Lodge or to hunt.
